Life

You say its never gone your way it brings you down
you never found a home

But Ill shine to be a light in your darkest day and when youre lost in a maniacal world youre not alone

And when the songs that they sing
and when the world that they bring cant keep you living life out on these broken wings Ill teach you how to fly

So shine when you want to forget everything that youve learned no your worlds not given up cause in a cold effervescent rush we are alive

(Pre-Chorus)
But were not gonna live forever the hate like a needle consumes us as we fade away you find that youre alone

But will you stand against your fate
And everything that youve betrayed will you believe in me

(Chorus)
Or fade away
Drop back and fade away
Go

And when the songs that they sing
and when the world that they bring cant keep you going cross-country on these broken wings
Ill teach you how to fly

and scream if you want to be heard
cause in a cold cascaded rush
we are alive

(Pre-Chorus)
(Chorus)

(Outro)
Drop back and fade away
