(Jacques Duvall/Dan Lacksman/Marc Moulin)

Seems I can't forget her.
There's always something wich reminds though I tore your picture.

Suddenly flashback, maddening feedback.
I feel a backlash, I need a brainwash.
Soul waves, soul waves stop assaulting me, soul
waves, soul waves.

Got you talking in my head, you're a nasty habit.
Every little thing you said, I wish I could like it.

Suddenly flashback, maddening feedback.
I feel a backlash, I need a brainwash.
Soul waves, soul waves stop assaulting me, soul
waves, soul waves.

Got you talking on my brain, really blowin' it out
And just like a smashing refrain, play me up and play out.

Suddenly flashback, maddening feedback.
I feel a backlash, I need a brainwash.
Soul waves, soul waves stop assaulting me, soul
waves, soul waves.
