A hundred years and a thousand nights
A blue colder than snow
A man with promise was coming to me
Where do promise go?
Where do they go?
Lone like a tree in the winter
Empty and bare
Never a word of good-bye
It froze in the air
BLUE SOLITAIRE
He rushed to my side and from out of nowhere
He was stealing a kiss

We were so young and foolish at heart
Never knew if would turn out like this
The turn of a kiss.
Gone on a plane in the night
I never knew if he cared
Never a word of goodbye
It frozen in the air
