Do you know how wonderful you are

It pleases me so to have this chance to show you.
In my dreams I've never been this far

They were only fantasies of what I thought love should be.
Love is lonely learning how to care

To care enough
to take the time to share.
And just when I thought that love had passed me by

i saw me
smiling in your eyes.
Love is such a sweet surprise.
I didn't know what I was searchin' for
I tried so hard to find what came so easy.
Love's a gift you give and you'll get more -
A magic shared by two and I would like to thank you.
Love is a lonely learning how to care

...
And just when I thought that love had passed me by

I saw me
smiling in your eyes.
Love is such a sweet surprise

Love is such a sweet surprise

Love is such a sweet surprise.
