

Temple Of Baal "Bitter Days"

Born on a day of curses and damnation
I was doomed to hate
Taken by force away from Death
Thrown on the stage of humiliations

Struggling through intense grief
A fate of endless shame
Endless pain, no relief
How many times have I cursed my name
Such is the fate of the damned
Sad, desperate wandering race
To be born is to resign
Accept to live through bitter days

Poison, razorblade
Tools to serenity
Leaving those who remain
In the ocean of bitterness

Bitter days...
