Oh, lord of all things alive and dead
Hear our chant from the depth of time
Grant us the power to see behind the veils
Thus hear the chant of thy faithful ones

Let us enter the flames of Baal
Let burn in the fires of wisdom

Oh, lord of all things alive and dead
Hear our chant from the depth of time
Make us one with your whirlwind of flames
Thus hear the chant of thy faithful ones

Let us enter the flames of Baal
Let us burn in the fires of wisdom
