The days are long and filled with pain.
We'll throw our lives away again.
I've never seen in my whole life.
My worst friend's sugar baby wife.
Now my life is gone.
Won't you try to hold me tight.

'Cause you'll be me and I'll be out.
What will I find inside my head?
The sun is gone.
But there's still light down inside my mind.
There's still a lot for us to see in this life.
Today you slipped into my head.
I'm waiting for you inside my bed.
There ain't no sense in feeling low.
I need more when you ever have to go.
Now my life is gone.
Won't you try to hold me tight.
'Cause you'll be me and I'll be out.
What will I find inside my head?
The sun is gone. But there's still light down inside my mind.
There's still a lot for us to see in this life.
Some might say that I walked through that door.

All my dreams are made of stupid whores.
Some might say that I fell from the sky.
But I have got a pillow in my eye.
The days are long and filled with pain.
We'll throw our lives away again.
I've never seen in my whole life.
My worst friend's sugar baby wife.
Now my life is gone.
Won't you try to hold me tight.
'Cause you'll be me and I'll be out
What will I find inside my head?
The sun is gone.
But there's still light down inside my mind.
There's still a lot for us to see in this life.
