I undermine your authority
My deviant society (Deviate with me Deviate with me)
Why should I ever compromise? (I don't compromise)
I'll never back down 'cause I've worked this hard to rewrite! (It's all mine now)

No! I won't be broken
The possibility beautiful is oversold to the dumb
No! I won't be broken
The intelligent never sign the dotted line to stay young

I defy mediocrity
Brainwashed anxiety (Mediocrity sells Mother Fucker) Their cheap pretence is overdone (I'll fight your disguise)
Forget your long handshakes - I will battle this state 'til
I've won

No! I won't be broken
The possibility beautiful is oversold to the dumb
No! I won't be broken
The intelligent never sign the dotted line to stay young

You can take all you want
You can take all you want
You can break all you want
But I'm never gonna sit back, never gonna drop back, sliding out of view for you
You can take all you want
You can take all you want
You can fake all you want
But I'm never gonna sit back, never gonna let you win!

No! I won't be broken
The possibility beautiful is oversold to the dumb (I can take it all)
No! I won't be broken
The intelligent never sign the dotted line to stay young (I can take it all)
I'm never gonna sit back, never gonna let you win!
