Now, if a rock should separate us
I'm gonna think of a way I can move that rock
(Move the rock, move the rock)

And if the clock should keep me waiting
I'm gonna think of a way I can speed up the clock
(Speed the clock, speed the clock)

And if a wall is between us
I'm gonna think of a way I can climb that wall
I tried to think of something I wouldn't do
Baby, to get a little closer to you

You, you know what?
I couldn't think of a thing at all
I couldn't think of a thing at all

Now, if opinion should come between us
I'm gonna think of a way we can reach an agreement
(An agreement, an agreement)

And if a brick floor should be between us
I'm gonna think of a way I can dig through the ceiling
(Through the ceiling, through the ceiling)

If there's a ball of fire between us
I'm gonna think of a way to get through that ball
I tried to think of something I wouldn't do
Baby, to get a little closer to you

You, you know what?
I couldn't think of a thing at all
Baby, I couldn't think of a thing at all
Yeah, yeah

Now if a million miles should separate us
I'm gonna think of a way I can cross those miles
(Cross the miles, cross the miles)

And if my actions, begin to bore you
I'm gonna think of a way I can change my style
(Change my style, change my style)

And if there's burning hall between us
I'm gonna think of a way to get down that hall
I tried to think of something I wouldn't do
Hey, to get a little closer to you

You know what?
I couldn't think of a thing at all
Believe me
(I couldn't think of a thing at all)

Hear what I say
(I couldn't think of a thing at all)
Babe, when I tell you
(I couldn't think of a thing at all)
I tried
