I don't know what your folks got against me, girl
But I do know that I want you permanently in my world What's age or color or money when you love one another?

I know you keep saying to me 'Our love will win and then you'll see.'

But baby, sail away with me
I can't wait another day
So you and I (can be free), oh baby
To share our love under the stars above
We'll spend the rest of our lives making love
Morning, noon, and night

I know you keep saying to me 'Our Love will win and
then you'll see.'

But baby, sail (away with me)
I can't wait another day, girl
So you and I can be free, oh baby
To share our love under the stars above
We'll spend the rest of our lives making love
Morning, noon, and night baby

I can feel the pressure closing in all around us
Girl don't let them destroy our love.

But baby, sail away with me
Where you, girl, and I can be free
We're gonna share our love under the stars above
We'll spend the rest of our lives making love morning, noon a
