"My World Is Full With You"

I Thought this would be the end of my life
When you told me you're no longer in love with me
I thought the sun would never arise again
When you told me everything was over

You made me feel like i was the only girl that you
Adore and gave me the sweetest kisses
You showed me how to love unselfishly
And eventhough there's no love left for me
I just want to know that I'm missing you

Coz my world is full with you
Coz my world is full with you

And eventhough we're not together once again
I found emptiness living without you
It feels so hard to let you go

Coz my world is full with you
Coz my world is full with you
