You think I want you to leave,
Its not that simple to me,
It all depends on the mood,
Innocent thoughts are misconstrued

Neither of us can make tonight,
The separations are not right,
You think I want you to leave,
Its not that simple to me

I want to see you dancing,
Tell me all the things that make you laugh,
Meet me at the church that we cant name,
Hoping that things will stay the same,
Sly way to nearing you,
I'm overwhelmed by thoughts of you

When this keeps breaking,
You leave me with no option deceived,
Adorn your walls with the stars,
Parading your heroes so far

You think I want you to leave,
Its not that simple to me,
You think I want you to leave,
Its not that simple

Hand me down lovers are worn out,
Exchanging glances and pouts,
Leave me with something I can hold,
Lend me a T-shirt to get home

So little holds my interest,
I find it hard to concentrate,
Meet at the church that we cant name,
Hoping that things will stay the same,
Sly way to nearing you,
I'm overwhelmed by thoughts of you,
How was I to realise you were dressing in disguise,
And so I wait to be renewed,
