Human nature, is on a loop.
Spare me a moment to regroup.

The biggest mistake of all,
I didn't return your call.
The biggest mistake of all,
My explanations stall.

And if you wonder why,
I write these words.
Im trying to describe,
How my heart hurts.

I never tried to be over-familiar,
Reality strikes when we talk of the future.

I couldn't wait for you.

I wish I could be honest with you,
And now Ive already started.
Commitment never seemed like a risk,
But thats the way it is.

This could never begin,
And now it's already started.
This love won't go away,
This is what becomes of the broken hearted.

The broken hearted.
This is what becomes of the broken hearted.

Human nature, is on a loop.

Spare me a moment to regroup.

The biggest mistake of all,
I didn't return your call.
The biggest mistake of all,
My explanations stall.

And if you wonder why,

I write these words.
Im trying to describe,
How my heart hurts.

You never tried to be over familiar,
We never talked about plans for the future.

I couldn't wait for you.

I wish I could be honest with you,
And now I've already started.
Commitment never seemed like a risk,
But that's the way it is.

This could never begin, (never begin)
And now it's already started.
This love won't go away,
This is what becomes of the broken hearted.

The broken hearted.
This is what becomes of the broken hearted.

Oooo the broken hearted.
This is what becomes of the broken hearted.
