Up all night anger and spite
Tell me that I'm right
Cause I'm drowning this is just great
Cause I know at this rate
A life full of hate is not worth living...
Wish you were dead is what I said
Escaping the confines of feeling
Just dissapear get away from here
It's me you should fear can you hear me
I'll close my eyes and ignore all the lies
Burning inside can you feel it
Know it's not right
But I cannot hide escaping
The confines of feeling
