On the highest mountain the first signal is called Hordes of evil led by Elite Darkness Oh if you could, through all the mist and dirt see Oh the sights would burn your eyes eternally.
Blood, the symbol of victory
Into battle we ride Defeat, unknown to us

Let your mortality die
The last breath of light, just embers slowly fading Triumphant we stand proud in enemy remains Immortal are those who survived those who shunned the light
Forgotten are those who embraced it.
