Your world is shit
And we shall see that it ends
Woe unto the fools within our path
For no quarter shall be given
No innocent shall be spared
For they shall serve as fodder
The streets will run red
And the way shall be paved with the dead
Entertaining death with led and steel
In a dance of ravaged flesh
All shall find salvation
With a slit throat and a bullet in the head
So let the agonies unfold
For now is the time to stand
Wielding merciless eradication
With an inclination towards murder
We shall be the answer
To the human question
Further acts of atrocity
With a preference for pain
Inflicted with such regularity
That it actually becomes ritual
Further acts of atrocity
With a fondness for mutilation
Further acts of atrocity
Not just to kill
But to disfigure so horribly
That life will be worse than death
