Did God Almighty create such a place?
For all normal human life to remain
If we stick by the book our life will be obtained
Soul and mind are not the same thing
But life in general doesn't care
For I will go, protect my soul
I will go the right way
Before your time
I hope you choose the way
Stop and think again
I shall not fall the evil way
Positive mind control
Did God Almighty create such a place?
Or are you too blind to see?
Smash your fist on the floor
And start changing your way of being
In the event of lore, make sure
That you don't cross the path
Belief in God is right, but don't step out of the light
