Saltwater Love

Frozen, my frozen mind keeps me undercover and hangs my head low
As I, I lift my head; I find my trust being broken yet again
But still I'm, but still I'm here, the Saltwater Love carrodes my heart
Please help me, 'coz I'm dying fast, can anybody see the pain I'm in, in

Whats been left inside my heart
'Coz I know whats left of you
Whats been left inside my heart
'Coz I know whats left of you.

Again.

Whats been left inside my heart
'Coz I know whats left of you
Whats been left inside my heart
'Coz I know whats left of you.

Ohh..inside
Now my healings taking place, in the comfort of your face
All my feelings will subside, you calmed the storm of my demise
You calmed the storm and said "...you can be saved"
