Loved ones they pass on
Leaving hurt as they go
Arisen to a land of glory
Lost from our sight the unseen world
Now you find souls ascending
Mysterious to some
A world that seems to be unknown
Being lost like blinded eyes now sown
Revealed on the day of the lord being
Lost like blinded eyes
A world that seem to be unknown is unseen
Welcome to the beginning of the end
Realm of the unknown
Fallen asleep then glorified believers
Will be reunited
Now you find souls ascending
Mysterious to some
A world that seems to be unknown
Being lost like blinded eyes now sown
Revealed on the day of the lord being
Lost like blinded eyes
A world that seem to be unknown is unseen
Realize the meaning to us all
A quiet place in the Lord
Unseen
Do you believe in what you cannot see?
Even though the way you live is not the way to be
