No one on earth means more to me
And you're a painted picture
Of the way that the world should be
Don't ever change it
I don't wanna live in this world without you, oh no
And I can't explain, I can't define
What you do to me
My senses are so alive
You tell the story
And it's all that I ever believe, oh yeah
Portraits and poetry
Are frozen forms of perfection
But they don't live and breathe
And when my heart's in need
They don't answer me
chorus
You, you are you're a human work of art
You, you are you're a human work of art
You make me love, you make me care
You give me freedom I don't need
When I know you're there

My search is over

I've got all of the riches that money don't buy, oh yeah

Your words are poetry

Your face is more than perfection

That when I watch you move

It only goes to prove

That everything you do

repeat chorus

You're my mission

You're my girl

Ooh you liberate my soul

There's no illusion

That your touch is gold

Portraits and poetry

Are frozen forms of perfection

But they don't live and breathe

And when my heart's in need

They don't answer me

repeat chorus

Walking talking inspiration

You you're a human work of art

Walking talking inspiration
