And they call her Sadie
That little south sea lady
They say that Sadie is the reason
For the heavy tourist season
In the isles so many miles
Across the sea

And that boys rise early
To see that streamlined girly
They say she's a principal attraction
When that gal goes into action
Reservation for vacation reach capacity

So if you're ever down in hula town
And come across a certain little lady
Big brown eyes that tantalize
You can bet your bottom coconut
That little gal is no one but Sadie
That little south sea lady

For when she rolls her lava lava
She's a very hot tamala
In the isles so many miles
Across the sea

And they call her Sadie
That little south sea lady
They say that Sadie is the reason
For the heavy tourist season
In the isles so many miles
Across the sea

And that boys rise early
To see that streamlined girly
They say she's a principal attraction
When that gal goes into action
Reservation for vacation reach capacity

So if you're ever down in hula town
And come across a certain little lady
Big brown eyes that tantalize
You can bet your bottom coconut

That little gal is no one but Sadie
That little south sea lady

For when she rolls her lava lava
She's a very hot tamala
In the isles so many miles
Across the sea

Across the sea
Across the sea
Across the sea
Across the sea
