What would you think?
Thought what you will
Felt how you feel inside
Didn't hide a thing
Think that I'm beautiful
Let me be beautiful

What would you paint?
Pictures were real
Paint me by candle light
The moon was high and still
Let me be beautiful
Would you just
Make me beautiful?

Mother Nature's
Running down the cement
Lying angel
Loving blind this evening

Love should be real
Love should be bold
Love helps you heal it
Warms your soul
Love doesn't kneel
Love makes you bold
Love makes you beautiful
Love once it grows
Love makes you beautiful (4x)

Hell knows no fury
Like a woman's scorn
When love is torn
Hell no the truth
And quiet it rages on Till love is born

Love should be real
Love should be bold
Love helps you heal it
Warms your soul
Love doesn't kneel

Love makes you bold
Love makes you beautiful
Love once it grows
Love makes you beautiful (8x)

Love should be real
Love should be bold
Love helps you heal it
Warms your soul
Love doesn't kneel
Love makes you bold
Love once it grows

Beautiful
What would you think?
Thought what you will
Didn't hide a thing

Think
That I'm beautiful
Would you like
To see beautiful?

Love is long suffering
And kind,
Love is not jealousy,
It does not brag
Does not get puffed up
Does not
Behave indecently
It bears all things
Believes all things
Hopes all things
Love never fails

Love should be real
Love should be bold
Love helps you heal it
Warms your soul
Love doesn't kneel
Love makes you bold
Love once it grows
