Dave Stone: Synthesizer

standing in a line with angels / this ain't gonna be no plain plane

ain't gonna be no dream with doors / burns like the snap of fingers.

standing in a line with angels / only the giants remain

standing in a line with angels / only the giants remain only the giants retain / drive and desire..

here's my shoulder to put your chip on / here is your crying towel.

even stars stomachs growl.

no trips from vinyl heroes / no nail biting protocol standing in a line with angels / even stars stomachs growl

stars stomachs growl with / drive and desire.

standing in a line with angels
