The Truth is distilled in between the lies
So don't stop fighting 'till
You see the whites of their eyes
Why can't you have it all?
I can run but you can fall

But, I can't deny what you want inside
I have to be the one who loves you
But, I can't define what you want inside
I have to Ride In Your Eyes

I'd like to be the one behind those eyes
'Cause it's just no fun behind the lines
Why can't you have it all?
I can run but you can fall

Finally you want to see me

But, I can't deny what you want inside
I have to be the one who loves you
But, I can't define what you want inside
I have to Ride In Your Eyes
I have to Ride In Your Eyes
I have to Ride In Your Eyes
