You know - everybody, no matter who they are
And no matter how different they might be,
Always runs across the same problem at least once
And that's the problem of love.
And maybe just once in your life,
You're gonna fall in love with somebody so bad,
And it's gonna be somebody that don't need you at all Somebody that's got everything in the world there is to have
And you've got nothing.
I, I who have nothing
I, I who have no one
Adore you and love you so
I'm just a no one with nothing to give you but love
I love you
And then you guys, you're gonna have to tell her something too
So you walk up to that girl and you sing,
He, he buys you diamonds
Bright, sparkling diamonds
But believe me, hear what I say
He can buy you the world but he'll never love the way

I love you

Listen here, he can take you any place he wants

To fancy clubs and restaurants

While I can only watch you with

My nose pressed up against the window pane

If then, just when you think that everything that you already love

Everything that you said has worth and find out that it didn't work at all

Yet when you're all alone you're gonna think about person that you loved so

Bad

Then you're gonna turn out the lights and you're gonna cry all to yourself

I, I who have nothing

I, I who have no one

Must watch you go dancing by

Wrapped in the arms of somebody else when darling, it's I

Who loves you

Who loves you

Who loves you

Who loves you
