when we began to play and we know it's a dangerous game and we know at last it's a lesson to learn from the past

now you know the truth is there i've never feel the same for you
i'm afraid for you
but really i was so confused

sorry baby
sorry baby
sorry baby

why did i taste your lips when i've holded void inside of me why you gave me your love all the love that you could give

sorry baby

in your eyes i see you're still in love with me and i know it's so cruel but you must say this is not true, baby

sorry baby
sorry baby
sorry baby
