Everyone knows that you're untrue,
Honey you and me are through,
You two timed me one time too often,
I'm so tired of your abuse,
Guess I'd better turn you loose,
You two timed me one time too often.
Nothing you can say or do,
Will make me change my mind,
I found out the hard way,
That a man in love is always blind,
I woke up and now I see,
You've been playing games with me,
You two timed me one time to often.

I'll go find somebody new,
You'll regret it when I do,
You two timed me one time too often,
All you did was take my heart,
Make it ache and break apart.
You two timed me one time too often.
There's no use to stand around,
And say you're sorry now,
I'm no good at playing that,
Old second fiddle anyhow,
It's too late too make amends,
This is where our courtin' ends,
You two timed me one time too often
