

Texas Pandaa "Days"

Visit "Days" on MotoLyrics.com

Days just fade away
Fade away like the ebb tide
Without any feelings or sorrow
Though I try to stay to be myself
No one's the same

May you try to say
That you want to make a change
That you really believe
That you've found out so far...

So you don't need to be such a coward
I think you're right
I believe we'd both be right

Somehow
I'm so sure that the days we've spent
Were not like the ebb tide
Look around
We've got nothing to lose

So go find your own kind
And don't lie to your mind

Never say
You could find no way
