"Finally"

I wish my mind wouldn't argue with my heart, it splits the Day apart, into time well spent and time just thrown away,
I wish my heart would please make up my mind, I'm wasting so Much time, gotta catch a glimpse of how it's gonna be.

When finally, I look inside your eyes and see,
Reflections of yourself in me, the way you always said it
Would be, when finally, I'm loving you like you love me,
it Happened oh so easily, I looked at you and it came to me,
Finally.

This Ferris wheel just keeps on spinning round, playing mind Games with the ground, can we stop this time, or must we go Again, I see you standing waiting just outside, come and Get me off this ride, wanna lose myself in being here with you.

When finally, I look inside your eyes and see,
Reflections of yourself in me, the way you always Said it would be, when finally, I'm loving you like you Love me, it happened oh so easily, I looked at you and
it Came to me, finally
