All this time, I've been trying hard to hear you
To understand you and to console you
I know your life, it's never been that simple
But now's the time to close the circle

To start over again is something scary
I know those bruises in your heart
Are there forever

But now's the time to start again
Stronger than ever
And show the world in your own way
That you're never going to go through this again

You know he never loved you
You know he never wanted you
He stabbed you in the back
And he broke your heart in half

But that will make you stronger
No suffering no longer
You'll learn from your mistakes
And there ain't no coming back

Now go enjoy your life
And you're going to laugh so hard
You are never going to cry
Once again for a guy

You know he never loved you
You know he never wanted you
But at least you learned somehow

But if now you cannot stop thinking of his love
And his kisses and his caresses
If in the night, can't sleep because you miss him
Just remember the pain you've been through

To start over again is something scary
I know those bruises in your heart
Are there forever

But now's the time to start again
Stronger than ever
And show the world in your way
That you will never going to go through this again

You know he never loved you
You know he never wanted you
He stabbed you in the back
And he broke your heart in half

But that will make you stronger
No suffering no longer
You'll learn from your mistakes
And there ain't no coming back

Now go enjoy your life
And you're going to laugh so hard
You are never going to cry
Once again for a guy

You know he never loved you
You know he never wanted you
But at least you learned somehow

Now's the time to start again
Stronger than ever
And show the world in your own way
That you will never going to go through this again

You know he never loved you
You know he never wanted you
He stabbed you in the back
And he broke your heart in half

But that will make you stronger
No suffering no longer
You'll learn from your mistakes
And there ain't no coming back

Now go enjoy your life
And you're going to laugh so hard
You are never going to cry
Once again for a guy

You know he never loved you
You know he never wanted you
But at least you learned somehow
