Hear my heart
To save my dreams
Every time I see the birds
In that scene
This sensation
Of being alone
Without affection
I'm lost in the storm

In my fantasies
I feel your hands
I receive this warning
But I won't arrive (at) this lake

The hope asleep with the lost time
Life is poetry
But I want (to) drop out
Maybe I wish bury me
With you

This strange vision
Blind my eyes
With the rays of the storm
Just wanna live
Without crying
And out of my glasses world
