Loneliness
I feel inside me
Far beyond
I feel your soul into my body
I lost control
Of my wishes my emotions

Let me be close to you
And hear what you have to say
Whatever I try I can't relieve your pain
I know our souls are ashes
But please carry on
Always joyful and smiling
Please go on

Let me feel that wind build again
You lost your innocence
It's all to be close to you
So stay, always, with me

So fair like the morning
That still brings
The cold of winter
I wait to take your hand
And try to live another day

My life is changing
Since that cold day of autumn
Some leaves fell on my face
I saw the life
Passing by
But now
I'm saying good-bye
