"Ocean Of Mind"

Visit "Ocean Of Mind" on MotoLyrics.com

The mourning voices of breaking waves
The wailing tunes of the sea
Black tide is coming with enticing whispers
Awake now and follow the undertow

Let's leave these shorelines far behind
In mind's ocean deep we immerse
And everything you've ever known
Dissolves just like the haze
Let's take a look behind - Behind the veil

Wash away our chains
Take away
The shadow from our mind
Wash away our ties
Take away
Our lives to give us birth

Sweet water wash away the blindness in our sight
We'll see the joins beneath the efferent drifts
And following the timeless tides reality will change
Let's take a look behind - Behind the mask
