On the table lays the vase that fell to break
A shower of pieces that could not be remade
A wave that we had caused to make You turned it now, demolished it how you chose the way
You wanted in this way
Shattered

Damage coincide I've got no one inside
I can't express the anger I feel tonight
Pressure building up that I can't find
Find no way to beat, beat the last day
To make this pain just go so far away
Got to get away
She's stuck in me
The skull is shattered red
Now inside I'm dead

Stone cold beat me to the yard
Keep the distance before I take it too far
Hurt she didn't mean to hear
Here I have it though I try to hide
Hide the damage deep inside

Bone yard down the depleted street
Can't get down to the bone beat
