[Lead:Paul]

[Chorus]

Cold winds blowing, darkness fills the skies
Fear is showing, panic in your eyes
Unknown forces, from the heavens above
Evil spirits, angelic shapes sent to destroy

Shapes of beauty, souls of rage
Released from heaven's golden gates
Their anger suppressed 2,000 years
Hypocrisy is running through their veins

The angels...are out for your blood
They cry out...a declaration of war
A war...to wipe out mankind
All evil...unleashed in this night

[lead:Paul]

[Repeat chorus]

Believers raise their hands up to the skies
Not realizing their faith is based on lies
Awaiting the arrival of their lord
Unknowing they'll be utterly destroyed

[Repeat 2nd verse]

The believers finally realize
The False One eternally idolized
Too late to fight the hand of fate
You're exposed to God's unholy rage

[Repeat chorus]
