Welcome to the pits of all abominations
Follow in me footsteps Apostles of Damnation Servants of hatred, soldiers of extermination Storms. Fire. Chaos. War... no salvation

Down below "the one who were and forever shall be"
dwell
The legions of the netherworld will sound the demon
bell
Indulge in your pleasures, follow us into temptation Lust and desires, rituals of unholy copulations

Welcome to the pits of all abominations
Follow in me footsteps Apostles of Damnation
The flames of redemption burn my flesh and my skin
But torture and punishment can't affect my need to sin

No penance for your unholiness. No one can keep us down
Do not expect "Judgment Day" -- no kingdom will come
The garden of Eden, destroyed, ravaged ravished lies open It's ours for the taking, the meek and the mild are broken

Down below "the one who were and forever shall be"
dwell
The legions of the netherworld will sound the demon
bell
down
Do not expect "Judgment Day" -- no kingdom will come
