"Beyond Terror"

Enter the realm of darkness,
Forget all the fears you've ever known
Dark is your mind and black is your soul
As you feel that you're losing all control
Feel my knife exploring every single inch
Of your naked body stretched out in front of me
Tearing every muscle, cutting every vein

Let me be the needle that penetrates your eye
You're one step beyond terror
(I'm) exploring what's inside

Suffocating slumber
A terrifying world of dreams
These awful hellish nightmares
Is it fiction or is it real?
Can you sense the pain inflicted upon you?
You've reached beyond the darkest horrors
No turning back for you

Trapped inside this mindwarp, reality or dream?
One step beyond terror, unlike anything you've seen

A suffocating, dehydrating
Eviscerating, world of horror
A miscalculation, the ultimate failure
No salvation, eternal damnation
Beyond the flesh, beyond comprehension
Beyond terror!
