Rise, corpses rise! Doomsday has arrived Hell's gates are opened wide! so rise The earth is trembling, graves are opening, the undead are set free Mass rebirth, mass resurrection, no way you can escape them No more room left in hell, they're doomed to walk the earth Satan's legions march to war! to kill You cannot run, you cannot hide You can't escape, you're bound to die In search of brains and flesh, they hunt the living down Like a blowjob-hungry bitch they suck you inside out (SOLO: ERWIN) Satan's masterplan prevails; world domination, reign of fear Kill the living, kill them all, Kill God's creatures one by one As the undead walk the earth, world downfall is close at hand God retreats, this battle is lost, Satan rules supreme Will God strike back, and turn the night to day Or will eternal dark be earth's perpetual fate?
