Time has come to say goodbye
To all things precious, we must leave behind
Tonight we die, to be reborn
We must travel time, into the beyond

We are the chosen ones
To destroy and create a new world order
Every thing must die
To create new life that fit's the master plan
... that is superior... to anything we've seen before

I feel my life's blood flowing as it's pouring on the floor
I can feel my spirit dying, it's fading more and more
New life's injected in my veins, in chaos I'm reborn
The berserker that I have become
Will leave you ripped and torn

A scorched earth is left
No living soul on earth could escape our rage
A new race is born
Destined to become the rules of the Netherworlds
The guardians of the throne
The knights of the Twilight Zone
The gods of the sun!

Destruction. Chaos. Creation
Destruction. Chaos. Death
Destruction. Chaos. Creation
Destruction. Chaos. Death

We are the chosen ones
To destroy and create a new world order
Every thing must die
To create new life that fit's the master plan
