The symbols of your civilisation, Erased with a single strike
No warning shot, no explanation, Just a terrifying sea of light

In the final seconds of your existence, As the flames of Armageddon arise
There's not even time to panic, So embrace your fate and pray to die

The night is falling, eraser is calling
The earth is shaking, history in the making

People leave their houses in fear, The evil presence ever so near
The age of destruction is here

You thought you were invulnerable, You thought you were immortal
You thought you were invincible, You thought you had it all

He showed that you were vulnerable, He showed that you were mortal
He showed you your deficiencies, He came (and) destroyed it all

The eraser has finally come, A destroyer and creator in one Another civilisation is gone

The symbols of your civilisation, Erased with a single
strike
No warning shot, no explanation, Just a terrifying sea of

The night is falling, eraser is calling
The earth is shaking, history in the making
