My body is a wreck
I feel I've been dead for a hundred years or more my skin has dried out my flesh is showing through the holes in my face

My body is full of substance that should not be inside I thought that I could take it now I know it wasn't right I know I should have known better, but it's too late to turn back now I closed my eyes for reality and I embraced death with open arms my blood is boiling, my flesh is rotting

The end is drawing near I am a walking timebomb, about to explode

So push the button, help me out and watch me die in flames
Human combustion - a sensational death
A pleasure from the inside, Imploding braincells burning deep into my tortured mind I'm a walking pile of driven but there's no one I can blame for it except myself

I am a walking timebomb about to explode
So push the button, help me out and
watch me die in flames
Human combustion - a sensational death
A pleasure for your eyes
