Take my hand, I'll be your guide,
I'll lead you to the sacred place Your body is chosen to become the mortal remains of our god Reincarnation
of his soul right into your dying corpse Your worthless
soul will be disposed; dispossession of your life
The God of Death is born again, his soul lives on in human form Examining mortal man in his own human shell
When the time is right for him he'll leave this world as a king Followed by millions of souls that will join him in the Netherworlds.
