Take my hand, I'll be your guide
I'll lead you to the sacred place Your body is chosen to become The mortal remains of our old god
Reincarnation of his soul
Right into your dying corpse
Your worthless soul will be disposed Dispossession of your life
The God of Death is born again
His soul lives on in human form Examining mortal man in his own human shell
When the times is right for him be'll leave this world as a king Followed by millions os soul that will join him in the Netherworlds...
