

Thanatos "The Howling"

Searching for me with it's gloomy eyes
Eyes of fire in the dead of the night
The Howling is all around...
How long will it take 'till I will be found
Now it has got me on the run
Now the chase has begun
I don't know where I must run
Cause it follows me wherever I go

[lead:Leon]

Two different personalities are
Living in my brain
My alter ego is chasing me,
It's driving me insane
Schizophrenic, sickening,
Violence-seeking mind
Is trying to eliminate
My helpful, peaceful side

[lead:Paul]

It has found me,
Now there's no escape
This is the end of my trip
Suicide is the only solution
To free myself
From my persecution mania

[lead:Leon]

Distorted thoughts of suicide
Will not leave my mind
My persecuted mind
Is searching for a way out
Slitting my wrists -
A pleasant way to die
Besides myself I kill the one
Who is fucking up my mind
