A thousand times the same dark feeling
A million miles the same old landscapes
Whole world of people all the same beings
The same old stories without escape

[Chorus:]

There's no change - nothing new
In eighty years we are all dead...
All we create and all what we do
Mountains of ashes and darkest sorrow
No remembers you after your death
You are lost in a game - hard and unfair
No one remembers you - all is senseless
Ritual of Life - Welcome to despair

A thousand times you feel like before
Million of humans - all with the same thoughts
Whole world of people walking same doors
A worthless life is what we bought

[Repeat Chorus]
