

The 12th Rib

"The Deity Of A Shapeless God"

Visit "The Deity Of A Shapeless God" on MotoLyrics.com

When I crossed the line that led me into an eternal dream, I could hear a thousand voices of regrets And as the frailty rushes into my dearest face of gore, despair is the only thing we could carry through

If only God could revive us again, I'll bleed for you But fate had given us an awkward love we must live
with

Behold the anger of the angels of my shapeless God Abandon all of your saviors before the Sun sets it's flame in the East

The last two questions:
Is your God as great as mine?
Is He what you called "The Only One"?

If only God could revive us again, I'll bleed for you
But fate had given us an awkward love we must live
with

The blood inside my veins is gasping for air
You can't deny the words you've said from years before
I'm pretty sure there'll be more than this to die
This is the end of everything and we will die in vain

Now your God had revived us again and I've bled for you
But still I can't believe that He exists

Visit The 12th Rib page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.