This is a story of a boy and a girl
How they both lived together
In there own private world
The boy's name was Billy
The girl's name was Blanche
Once it happened, one day they took a chance

I took a walk one day with Blanche
Along the avenue of love and romance
And I decided that I'd take chance
Just to see how happy life would be (Life would be)
If only Blanche and me

We strolled apart one afternoon
But our parting came a little too soon
And now I'm dreaming of Blanche by the Moon
She's the girl for me
(She's the girl for me)

Can't you see that I love her
What more can I ask from heaven above
If I lose her, I lose my own, my only love

Now there is something that you can't deny
Love is something that money cannot buy
And now I'm dreaming of Blanche by the Moon
She's the girl for me-ee-ee-eeee

She's the girl for me
(She's the girl for me)
