Got woken up in the middle of a dream.
A red alert from the facility.
Someone cracked the lock and gained entry.
They said it was MGP, but someone faked my identity.
And I'm not gonna sleep tonight,
Until our lab work's done. Alright!
My clock reads 0400, and I'd rather be in bed.
But we still have, hours of work ahead.
Please remember to encrypt the code.
I'll send the password to your radio,
'cause we don't need another accident tonight.
Oh my God, the shit's gonna blow!
So save the masters and the stereo.
'cause we don't need a fucking accident tonight.
