i'm full of frustration when i see you the fuckin' things you say and do, you're full of ignorance and blindness too and you think that you are all time cool and i know you got a closed mind you're not open for different things only hate is what you will bring you don't like humans wich smoke and drink... so you must learn respect i think but i know you got a closed mind you and your clothes tells me you're so straight edge you never have fun only live in rage and i ask myself, who destroys the scene? with his selfcalled "better mean"
but i know you got a closed mind hey! open your mind for better sights or we never come back like in the beginning times
