I've got a feelin'
I'll be headin' down for good
Got that feelin'
I'm never gonna do the things I should
I'm caught in this world
Heaven sent but hell possessed
Feeling grey since my black went white
Yes means no and no means yes

I do believe
I finally need a Saviour at last
I never saw the need before, but now
That time has passed
No ifs ands or buts
This ol' world has kicked my ass

I alternate
Between fantasy
And the cold hard truth
I oscillate
Between the cool and the uncouth
But I resonate
To the piercing eyes of God
I saw in my youth

Where did He go?
What is He thinking about me now?
Am I a delight to Him or
Little more than a holy cow?
Moo moo baby
Feel I been milked down
Brown how now
